Internship Opportunities at the Institute for Cultural Diplomacy, Berlin

The Institute for Cultural Diplomacy is an international, not-for-profit, non-governmental organization that works to strengthen intercultural relations. To pursue this goal, the ICD conducts a diverse range of activity. This activity includes the ICD Young Leaders Forums, International Conferences, diverse Initiatives and the Cultural Diplomacy News. In addition to these three areas of activity, the ICD also organizes public events such as cultural performances, panel discussions, exhibitions, and other activity related to cultural exchange.

The ICD offers internship opportunities to individuals who would like to gain practical experience working for a non-governmental organization in the field of intercultural exchange. Internships are offered across the full range of ICD activities and allow interns to support the development and realization of our programs.
