Big Ten Conference Center Expo

Friday, March 11 2011
9am-3pm
Union Station—Indianapolis, Indiana

The Big Ten Conference Career Expo is a great place to look for a job or internship or find a new opportunity if you are experienced. It is open exclusively to students and alumni of the 11 Big Ten universities. This Career Fair is not like all the others - In a survey following the 2010 event, 80% of the employers said they were going to contact students and alumni for job openings that they met at the Expo!

- Free to attend!
- Companies come to hire for internships, full-time employment for recent college grads and positions for those alumni looking to make a career change.
- Two breakout sessions will be held - "Careers in Sports" and "New Media in the Workplace - Careers and Opportunities"
- Cyber Cafe at Expo to update and print resumes or meet friends. On site consultants available to review resumes and coach candidates on the spot.
- Giveaways throughout the day!
- Business casual attire for participants and employers.
- Special student ticket rate for Big Ten Basketball Tournament available through your university ticket office (must be a current student).

We invite you to join us at the 2011 Career Expo and help us connect you with a new career!
