LSA Sophomores... Trying to find interesting classes to take this winter semester?

Here is a sampling of courses that have reserved seats just for sophomores!

UC 256 Twenty-Two Ways to Think About New Media (ID) (Sec 001)
Meet scientists and artists, and also publishers, curators, policy experts and more, from schools and disciplines across campus, discussing the ways that new media have transformed their work, and explore these new media yourself!

UC 170 Positioning Yourself for a Successful Internship (Sec 001)
A mini-course that guides you in developing the skills to make yourself competitive for internships and the academic foundation for your success.

UC 270 A User’s Guide to the Liberal Arts (Sec 006)
A mini-course designed to help you understand and speak confidently about how your liberal arts education is preparing you for success in a wide range of careers.

UC 370 Skills for College, Career and Beyond (Sec 001)
A course in which you will work on everything from preparing for a job search to skills that are useful in a wide variety of educational and career settings and life outside career.

UC 300 Tours of the Past (Sec 001)
This course presents "behind-the-scenes" tours of various UM research facilities, museums, and libraries that center on scientific and historical study. It is natural, but not required, to take UC 300 in conjunction with HISTORY 238 / ACABS 238 / AAPTIS 238 / EARTH 238 Zoom: “A History of Everything”), a multidisciplinary course that addresses the history of the universe, Earth, life, and humanity as a single unified whole.

UC 254 Sophomore Interdisciplinary Seminars – Eleven topics to choose from, including:
- Sec 003 – Am I Made in China: On Global Culture (ID)
- Sec 004 – History, Memory, and Trauma in Comparative Perspective (ID)
- Sec 005 – Global Health Equity for the 21st Century: Thought, Conscience, and Action (ID)
- Sec 007 – Much Depends on Dinner (ID)
- Sec 011 – Technology and Power in Africa (ID)

UC 250 - Engaging Performance (Sec 002)
A new course that introduces the performing arts (music, dance and theater) as an integral part of our lives and the world at-large, and gives you the opportunity to attend UMS events and interact with the visiting artists.

AND MANY MORE CLASSES!

For a full listing of Sophomore Initiative tagged courses visit the LSA Course Guide: http://www.lsa.umich.edu/cg/, click Advanced Search and select “Sophomore Initiative” under the “Other Requirements/Groupings” section.