This summer we are offering 1st, 2nd and 3rd year Arabic classes in addition to an advanced level Business Arabic class. The application deadline is April 10th but may be extended if space is still available after that date.

Summer Language Institute Classes:

1. Elementary Arabic (AAPTIS 103): 10 weeks: June 2nd to August 13th (10 credits if taken for credit) The class is designed to take students from zero proficiency to an Intermediate Low level of proficiency in all language skills. The class is a dual register class in which students will learn to communicate with and understand elements of the Egyptian dialect as they also learn to understand, read and write fuSHA. The class meets for 4 hours per day for 5 days per week and students will have an additional 6-8 hours of homework each day.

2. Intermediate Arabic (AAPTIS 205): 10 weeks: June 2nd to August 13th (10 credits if taken for credit) The class is designed to take students from an Intermediate Low to an Intermediate High level of proficiency in all language skills. The class is a dual register class in which students will learn to communicate with and understand elements of the Levantine dialect as they also learn to understand, read and write fuSHA. The needs of students with no prior exposure to an Arabic dialect can and will be accommodated. The class meets for 4 hours per day for 5 days per week and students will have an additional 6-8 hours of homework each day.

3. Advanced Arabic (AAPTIS 403 and 404): From July 1st to July 24th and July 27th to August 20th, respectively. (8 credits if taken for credit) The class is designed to take students from an Intermediate High to an Advanced Low/Mid level of proficiency in all language skills. The class meets for 4 hours per day for 5 days per week and students will have an additional 6-8 hours of homework each day.

4. Intensive Advanced Business Arabic (AAPTIS 412): July 1st to August 20th (8 credits if taken for credit). This class is offered to students, members of the business community and government personnel who have completed at least three years of Arabic and wish to continue Arabic study for academic and professional purposes. A minimum proficiency level of Advanced Low is recommended to take the course.
