

The Church of Armenia: Profile of a National Institution

MIDEAST 318

Tuesday/Thursday
11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Professor Kevork Bardakjian
(kbar@umich.edu)

Learn about the introduction of Christianity to Armenia and the rise of the Armenian Church as an autocephalous, national Church, against the backdrop of Armenia's political, cultural and social history. Topics to be explored include Christian Armenian identity in Armenia and the Diaspora, relations with other churches as well as Islam, and the hitherto inadequately explored political role the Church continues to play in the lives of Armenians.