

Area of Specialization Checklist for English Majors

Concentrators are encouraged to select nine credits of upper-division courses within one of the areas of specialization below (or one designed by the student and an advisor, such as Trans-Atlantic 19th Century Literature). These courses will be included in the 30 minimum credits needed for the concentration. You may find a list of Areas of Specialization designated courses on our website: www.lsa.umich.edu/english

Historical, Cultural, and Geographic Frameworks

Medieval

Early Modern & Long 18th Century

British 19th, 20th & 21st Centuries

U.S. Literary Cultures to 1900

Check off AOS and list course numbers and titles

U.S. 20th & 21st Centuries

1) _____

Literatures of the Americas

2) _____

World Literatures in English

3) _____

Analytic Frameworks

Literary Criticism, Theory, and Genre Studies

Studies in Race and Ethnicity

Sexuality/Gender Studies

Drama and Performance Studies

Language, Writing, and Rhetoric

Advisor Comments:

Advisor's Signature: _____

Date _____

Student's Name: _____

UMID# _____