English Requirements for Teaching Certification
(for students accepted to the program prior to Winter 2016)

Prerequisites:

English 298 (Introduction to Literary Studies)  __________

English major requirements:

*Pre-1600:  English__________  __________
*Pre-1830:  English__________  __________
Pre-1830:  English__________  __________
American Literature:  English__________  __________
New Traditions:  English__________  __________
Poetry:  English__________  __________
Composition course:  Sweetland Writing Center (Course 300 or 430)  __________
Language course (305):  English__________  __________

Electives:

English__________  __________
English__________  __________

Total credits: __________

- Upper-Level Writing Requirement (LS&A student requirement only)
- Overall 2.5 G.P.A. in major
- 33 total credits, including prerequisites

The required composition course (SWC 300 or SWC 430) serves as the one expository writing course English concentrators may count toward fulfilling program requirements in LS&A.

NOTE: A single course can fulfill two program requirements (Pre-1600, Pre-1830, American Literature, New Traditions, or Poetry). However, you must have three courses in Pre-1830 literature, at least one of which must focus on literature written before 1600. If you are using a single class to fulfill more than one requirement, be sure to count the credits only once in the worksheet above.

* English 367 (Shakespeare's Principal Plays) and 350 (Literature in English to 1600) are recommended for students in the English/Education program. These courses will fulfill either the Pre-1600 or Pre-1830 requirements for the major.
