

Archived Anthropology and History Workshop Papers:

March 10, 2006: Writing faith through the eyes of the missionaries: Personal religiosity of the members of the Berlin Mission church in the Zoutpansberg, South Africa, in the late 19th and 20th century

-Caroline Jeannerat, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History

February 17, 2006 meeting:

Regrettable Theatrics: South African Truth Commission and the Guguletu Seven

-Catherine Cole, Department of Drama, University of California, Santa Barbara

February 3, 2006 meeting:

Always Already White: Clothing, Bodies, and the Politics of Trans-species Engagement (Chapter Six)

-Eduardo Kohn, MI Society of Fellows-UM Anthropology

January 27, 2006 meeting:

Sama Spatial Practice and Ambivalent Incorporation: the 1950's Darul Islam conflict in coastal Sulawesi, Indonesia

- Jennifer Gaynor, University of Michigan

January 13, 2006 meeting:

A View From Itia Ororo Kande

-Stephan Palmié, University of Chicago

December 2, 2005 meeting:

Cultural Mediations: Trans-Imperial Subjects, Intimacy, and Double Consciousness

-E. Natalie Rothman, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History

November 18, 2005 meeting:

"In the Name of El Pueblo: Possessions, Politics and Histories"

-Paul Eiss, Carnegie Mellon University

November 4, 2005 meeting:

"The Politics of Small Numbers: Statistical Counting, Fabrication, and Exclusion in Java" [Working Draft]

-Eric Stein, Oberlin College

October 21, 2005 meeting:

"Who Would Defend the Indians of Quito? An Ethnographic Polemic in the Ibero-Atlantic World"

-Neil Safier, Michigan Society of Fellows and University of Michigan Department of History

October 7, 2005 meeting

"Honest Maidenhood and Good Customs in Cuba, 1933-1959" [Working Draft 9/30/05]

- Sarah Arvey, Ph.D. Candidate, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History

September 23, 2005 meeting

"Identity, Performance, and Secrecy: Gendered Life and the 'Modern' in Northern Nigeria"

-Steven Pierce, Department of History, Tulane University; School of Arts, Histories, and Cultures, University of Manchester

June 14, 2005 meeting

"Repossessing El Pueblo: Two Histories of Hunucmá"

-Paul Eiss, Carnegie Mellon

"Brief Event: Prescinding Value in the Era of "Globalization"

-David Pedersen, University of Michigan

April 8, 2005 meeting

"Modern Inquisitions": selected readings

-Professor Irene Silverblatt, Duke University

March 25, 2005 meeting

"Positive Ethics and Ritual Conventions," chapter 4, Politics of Piety: The Islamic Revival and the Feminist Subject (Princeton University Press, 2005).

-Saba Mahmood, Department of Anthropology, University of California, Berkeley

March 18, 2005 meeting

"Circulation" and the Cold War: Reading Between the Lines in 1970s Hungary

-Susan Gal, University of Chicago

February 18, 2005 meeting

The Appeal of Failure: Air Power, Internationalization, and Empire in the Caribbean, 1933-1926

-Chandra Bhimull, Ph.D. candidate, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History

February 4, 2005 meeting

Parts Pulled Out: Garnering Central American Modernity Through its Abstractions

-David E. Pedersen, Post-Doctoral Fellow, University of Michigan/Assistant Professor University of California, San Diego

January 21, 2005 meeting

"An Enslaved Enlightenment: Re-Thinking the Intellectual History of the French Atlantic"

-Laurent Dubois, Michigan State University

December 17, 2004 meeting

Chapter Two of "Theorizing Diasporic Religion (Part II): Space, Memory, Transmission"; a work-in-progress by Paul Christopher Johnson (History and CAAS)

December 3, 2004 meeting:

Chapter 5, "Restricting Access to Landed Property" from: Insurgent Citizenship: Disjunctions of Democracy and Modernity in Brazil

© James Holston

November 19, 2004 meeting:

Draft of Dissertation Chapter Two, Finding a Place in the State.

-Edward Murphy, Ph.D. candidate, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History
Dissertation Outline

- Edward Murphy

November 5, 2004 meeting:

Governing Relief: Humanitarianism and Regulation in Gaza - Ilana Feldman
Public History in Shiraz

- Setrag Manoukian

October 15, 2004 meeting:

Gendering the Images of the Enemy in the Propaganda Discourse of the Cold War: Basic Approaches

- Oleg Ryabov

October 1, 2004 meeting:

A Glorious, But Fictional, Past: The Limits of the Malleability of National History in Cacha, an Indigenous Jurisdiction in the Ecuadorian Central Andes.

-Sergio Miguel Huarcaya, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History student

Tradition as a Trans/formation of Historical Anthropology

-Zareena Grewal, Ph.D. candidate, Doctoral Program in Anthropology and History

September 23, 2004 meeting:

An excerpt from chapter 2 of Marshall Sahlin's upcoming book, entitled, Apologies to Thucydides: Understanding History as Culture and Vice Versa

October 27-29, 2005: Workshop: "Bodies, Networks, Geographies: Colonialism, Development, & Cold War Technopolitics."

- Contact: hechtg@umich.edu for details