7. SOE-approved 200-level non-Western course
8. 200-level European history

Course selections must cover two distribution requirements and include a colloquium. These can overlap; a colloquium on ancient Greece will also fulfill the pre-1800 and European requirements and count as an upper-level course. Beyond this, students are free to follow their own interests in completing the program. All courses must be taken for a grade with an overall 2.0 GPA required.

A. Chronological Distribution

240 One of the eight courses, excluding the prerequisite, must focus on pre-1800 history.
History 204, 239, 240, 246, and 347 satisfy this requirement.

B. Geographic Area Distribution

Four courses, including the prerequisite must cover geographical areas as follows:

260 one course in U.S. history

X one course in European history

#2 or 7 above & 240 two courses in non-Western history (Africa, Asia, Latin America, Middle East or Pacific Islands). One of these two may be from the transregional /comparative history course list. History 204, 205, 206, 207, 246, 247, 347, and 348 are non-Western; History 240 and 239 are transregional. Consult SOE regarding counting 239 as world history.

C. History Colloquium

X One course, either History 396 (Upper-Level Writing Course) or History 397, OR the entire Honors sequence, History 398 and 399.

3. COGNATE COURSES 1. _____ 2. _____

Cognates might be elected in the field of your teaching minor, if relevant.

At least 6 credits of cognate courses (usually 2 courses), 300-level or above, in one department or program, and approved by a History Concentration Advisor.
