

HISTORY CONCENTRATION CHECKLIST

Effective Fall Term 2001

1. PREREQUISITE Complete both courses in one of the introductory survey sequences.

___ 110/111 Europe
FA / WN

___ 260/261 United States
FA / WN (required for teaching cert)

___ 200/201 Greece & Rome
FA / WN

___ 204/205 East Asia
FA / WN

___ 206/207 South & SE Asia
(both offered Fall term only)

___ 246/247 Africa
FA / WN

2. EIGHT HISTORY COURSES of 3- or 4- credits, at least four courses taken in residence at UM Ann Arbor.

5 upper-level courses (300+)

3 more courses (at least 200-level)

1. _____

6. _____

2. _____

7. _____

3. _____

8. _____

4. _____

5. _____ (History Colloquium)

Course selections must cover two distribution requirements and include a colloquium. These can overlap; a colloquium on ancient Greece will also fulfill the pre-1800 and European requirements and count as an upper-level course. Beyond this, students are free to follow their own interests in completing the program. All history and cognate courses must be taken for a grade with an overall 2.0 GPA required.

A. Chronological Distribution

___ One of the eight courses, excluding the prerequisite, must focus on pre-1800 history.

B. Geographic Area Distribution

Four courses, including the prerequisite must cover geographical areas as follows:

___ one course in U.S. history

___ one course in European history

___ & ___ two courses in non-Western history (Africa, Asia, Latin America, Middle East or Pacific Islands). One of these two may be from the transregional/comparative history course list.

C. History Colloquium

___ One course, either History 396 (Upper-Level Writing Course) or History 397,
OR the entire Honors sequence, History 398 and 399.

3. COGNATE COURSES 1. _____ 2. _____

At least 6 credits of cognate courses (usually 2 courses), 300-level or above, in one department or program, and approved by a History Concentration Advisor. Second concentration courses may count as cognates with advisor approval.

LSA rules allow only one course to count for both a concentration and minor, including cognates.