ELECTIVES (as needed)

Students may choose electives from any requirement area on the OS curriculum list as needed to reach the overall 37 credit requirement for the OS concentration.

^COURSES THAT VARY IN CLUSTER DESIGNATION

Each term, the OS advisor will indicate in which cluster these courses may count (Orgstudy 395 and Orgstudy 495). These courses may always be counted as Cluster C or as electives, but may count alternatively in Cluster A or B as determined by the topic each term.

ORGSTUDY COURSES NOT COUNTED TOWARD THE CONCENTRATION

ORGSTUDY 299 – Undergraduate Internship is available for students who are required or wish to receive credit for an internship experience. OS 299 is a 1 credit non-graded (CR/NC) course which does not count toward OS concentration requirements.

SOC/ORGSTUDY 215 – Organization and Society is a survey course designed for underclass students who wish to have a broad introduction to the field of organizational sociology. It is not a prerequisite for the OS concentration, nor does it count toward OS concentration requirements.
