

2008 BSPA Recruitment Weekend Application Checklist:

Please make sure these items are included in your completed application package.

Application

Transcript (unofficial)

Statement

Names and Contact Information of 2 References

Recruitment Weekend 2008 Application

Deadline: Application must be postmarked by December 3, 2007

Name:

Current Address:

Telephone:

Email:

College/University:

Years of College Completed (2 minimum):

Major:

Minor (if applicable):

GPA (Overall):

GPA (Major):

If you have your GRE scores, please provide them below.

GRE-Math:

GRE-Verbal:

GRE-Subject:

Area(s) of Interest (e.g. Clinical, Developmental, Social, Biopsychology, Personality in Social Contexts, Cognition and Perception, Psychology and Education, etc.). We recommend that you research U of M faculty webpages to get further information on current areas of research. Please be thoughtful in your selection of your area(s) of interest.:

Research Interests:

Research Experience:

Relevant Work Experience(s) (i.e. experiences related to your area of interest, research interests, and/or career goals):

Please provide a copy of:

- 1) your vitae/resume including the names and contact information of at least two references
- 2) an unofficial academic transcript with the completed application

In one to two single-spaced pages, please explain your reasons for wanting to obtain a doctoral degree in psychology (i.e. research and/or career interest and goals), and how you feel participation in the BSPA Recruitment Weekend will relate to and/or facilitate your goals. Please also indicate any University of Michigan faculty members with whom your research interests match. We recommend that you research U of M faculty webpages to get further information on current areas of research. This essay should also be approached as a first draft of your personal statement.

Return Completed Application to:

Karmen Kizze M.S.
Black Student Psychological Association
The University of Michigan
530 Church Street
2240 East Hall
Ann Arbor, MI 48109