

LANGUAGE AND CULTURE IN EVERYDAY LIFE: KOREAN DISCOURSE AS A WINDOW INTO CULTURE

THIS COURSE IS MADE POSSIBLE WITH THE SUPPORT OF THE:

KOREA KF
FOUNDATION

Instructor | Susan Strauss | sgs9@psu.edu
Spring/Winter 2018 | Tuesdays & Thursdays
10:15-11:30AM (CT)
11:15AM-12:30PM (ET)

In this course, we will study the interrelationships between culture, language, and worldview-with a specific focus on Korea and Koreans.

Through research, theory, videos, printed matter, and music, we will investigate: How language shapes, creates, and is created by behaviors, expectations, orientations, perceptions, and practices
No prior knowledge of Korean is required.

PENNSSTATE

PENNSYLVANIA STATE UNIVERSITY
COURSE NUMBER | KOR498
Susan Strauss | sgs9@psu.edu

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY
COURSE NUMBER | Korean 5380
Mitchell Lerner | lerner.26@osu.edu

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY
COURSE NUMBER | KOR 291
Catherine Ryu | ryuc@msu.edu

OFFERED JOINTLY BY:

M | LSA | NAM CENTER
FOR KOREAN STUDIES
UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

BIG
ACADEMIC ALLIANCE
Korean Studies e-School